

Junior Display

Do you know a junior (someone under 18) who likes to sew?

We invite them to display a project in the Quilt Show.

There will be an area designated for this.

All levels of experience are welcome.

This is wonderful opportunity to showcase the next generation of potential quilters.

The form needs to be filled out by a guild member and submitted to Susan Teece. The information is also on our website.